RECHENEERG, who during World War II was in COEFFEL's Propaganda Ministry, has extensive contacts with Nazis throughout the world and one of his activities has been taking care of Adolf EICHMANN's family, handling the publicity angle of the EICHMANN trial from the EICHMANN side, and in so doing he has regular contact with Robert SERVATIUS, EICHMANN's defense attorney. The Prancois GENOUD mentioned below is a Swiss citizen residing inflausanne, who is an Arab affairs expert and was an Abrehr agent during World War II. He is a regular contact of RECHENEERG's. 2. Recent telephone conversations have revealed that Franz RADEMACHER was recently put on the UPHILL payroll and has so far provided two reports on the Syrian situation, probably via open mail to Francois GENOUD. RECHENEERG's original interest in RADEMACHER was in connection with the EICHMANN trial and the approach was made via letters from RECHENEERG and from SERVATIUS some time in Pebruary or March 1962. RADEMACHER responded to RECHENEERG's letter in early April and apparently it was the mention of GENOUD's name which made him decide to answer. RADEMACHER wrote that he is very cautious since all sorts of people have approached him such as Herman SCHAEFER
